Dear Sir

Dharna Programme before Corporate Office, Gurugram on 29.03.2017

This is in reference to your letter dated 30.03.2017 on the above matter.

In this context, you will recall that to diffuse the situation and to maintain harmonious and cordial relation, the Bank took the initiative and vide letter dated 24.03.2017 requested the Federation to submit the list of specific issues so that they can be called for a meaningful discussion at the earliest possible.

Vide letter dated 24.03.2017, we received 8 number of issues and again vide our letter dated 24.03.2017 invited the Federation on 29.03.2017 at 4.00 pm for discussing the issues. However, vide letter dated 26.03.2017, we were informed that before sitting separately you shall join the Meeting jointly with the Association on 29.03.2017 at 10.30am. Vide our letter dated 27.03.2017, we informed you that it would not be possible to hold joint meeting at 10.30 am and the meeting scheduled with the Federation fixed for 29.03.2017 at 4.00 pm stands as scheduled. Nobody from the Federation turned up for the Meeting as we kept waiting for the representatives of the Federation for the Meeting.

Further, vide letter dated 28.03.2017 we were informed that you will be organizing full day Dharna & Demonstration within the campus of Corporate Office, Gurugram. Under the circumstances, we were left with no other option but to inform the District Authorities to safeguard the interest of the stakeholders.

However, we reiterate that we are open to a meeting with the Federation's core committee members (max. five members) for discussion on the issues already raised vide letter dated 24.03.2017.

It is to be ensured that the core committee should not include any dismissed/ removed / compulsorily retired representative.
